- Maintaining a clean driving record
- Demonstrating a good student status

DEDUCTIBLE OPTIONS

We offer a wide range of deductible options to meet your individual needs.

CORE COVERAGE

With Travelers Auto, you are covered whether the car you're driving is your own, a rental car, or one that you've borrowed. A typical Travelers Auto policy includes the following important coverages:

Collision Coverage. Pays for damage to your car if you're in a covered accident.

Comprehensive Coverage. Pays for damage to your car from a fire, theft, vandalism, or many other events.

Liability Insurance. Protects you and your family against claims for bodily injury or property damage caused by an auto accident in which you or your covered family members are considered legally responsible.

Medical Payments. Pays for medical expenses for you, your family members and passengers if you're involved in an accident in your car or as a pedestrian.

Uninsured/Underinsured Motorist. Typically covers injury resulting from a hit and run or an accident with an uninsured driver.

ADDITIONAL COVERAGE OPTIONS

Rental Reimbursement. Covers the expense of a rental car while your vehicle is being repaired, as a result of a covered loss, up to limits of your policy.

Towing and Labor. Provides towing service for a disabled vehicle. A variety of limits are available.

Repair or Replacement Collision. Pays for replacing your vehicle with a new vehicle of like kind and quality if collision results in a total loss.

Auto Loan/Lease Coverage. In a total loss, this coverage generally pays for the additional amount you may owe on your loan or lease above your vehicle's value.
